

Senior Building Engineering Inspector

$6,353.18 - $7,892.64 Monthly
$76,238.16 - $94,711.68 Annually

A Senior Building Engineering Inspector is responsible for performing a combination of the following essential job functions: inspects all types of residential, commercial and industrial buildings to ensure compliance with the County's Building Laws and related federal, State, and local codes and zoning ordinances; reviews plans for building construction, plumbing, electrical and mechanical details prior to performing inspections; approves changes to private construction site work in structural, plumbing, mechanical, electrical and related work; initiates soil tests where evidence indicates soil instability; performs relocation, occupancy, business license and major grading inspections; assists subordinate inspection personnel in performing the more complex inspections related to unusual occupancy buildings and rehabilitation projects; assists in the training and orientation of subordinate inspection personnel; prepares reports and maintains records related to issuing permits; files complaints against willful violators of the County's Building Laws and testifies in court, as needed; provides assistance and support to the Office Manager on any critical issues and any other investigative or special assignment, including after working hours emergency response, as needed; and drives a motor vehicle to get to various inspection sites on a routine basis.

Apply Here:

<https://www.governmentjobs.com/careers/lacounty/jobs/1201463/senior-building-engineering-inspector?keywords=Building%20Engineering%20Inspector&pagetype=jobOpportunitiesJobs>